What is a Title I Program?

Title I program is the largest federal aid program for elementary, middle, and high schools. Through Title I, money is given to school districts around the country based on the number of low-income families in each district. Each district uses its Title I money for extra educational services for children most in need of educational help. The focus of the Title I program is on helping all students meet the same high standards expected of all children.

Parents Have the Right...

- ◆ to know the professional qualifications of his/her child's teacher(s), including the degrees and certifications held, and whether the teacher is certified in their respective area of instruction.
- ◆ to know the school improvement status of the school.
- ◆ to know the level of achievement of their child in each area of the state assessment.
- ◆ to know if their child has been assigned, or has been taught for at least four consecutive weeks, by a teacher who does not meet the highly qualified definition.
- ◆ to be involved in the planning and implementation of the parent involvement program in their school.

What are Title I funds used for?

- Instruction
- Class size reduction
- Summer School
- After-school tutoring
- Instructional materials

Parent Involvement/ Shared Responsibilities

Parent Involvement is an important aspect of Title I. As a parent, you can influence your child's success in school. We encourage you to be actively involved in your child's education.

You can become more involved with your child's education by:

Joining your child's PTO; Supporting your school's extracurricular activities; Volunteering at your child's school; Keeping your child's teacher informed about events in your child's life that may affect his/her performance at school; Attending parent/teacher conferences; and communicating with your child's teacher regularly by phone, email, or notes.
